JANUARY 2018 VOLUME 3 ISSUE 4

Inman Masonic Lodge Officers for 2018

At the November regular communication, elections were held for the officers of Inman Masonic Lodge for the ensuing Masonic year. Brother Ken Kuszmaul was elected to serve as Worshipful Master for 2018. WB Terry Mabry was elected to serve as Senior Warden, and Brother Steve Parris was elected to serve as Junior Warden. RWB Doug O'Shields was elected to serve as Treasurer, and RWB Paul McWilliams was elected to serve as Secretary. Brother John Woodyard was appointed to serve as Senior Deacon, and Brother Jared Miller was appointed to serve as Junior Deacon. Brothers Carl Webb and Gene Michael Kuszmaul were appointed to serve as Stewards. WB Stephen A. Pinker was appointed to serve as Tiler, and Brother David Figus was appointed to serve as Chaplain.

Congratulation to all these Brethren on their elections and appointments. Inman Masonic Lodge continues to be held in good hands!

Inman Degree Work

Inman Lodge has had quite a few degrees conferred in the past several months. Brothers Kevin Steed and Carl Webb received their Entered Apprentice Degree on May 19, 2017. Brothers Carl Webb and David Figus received their Fellow Craft Degree on July 20th, and their Master Mason Degree on August 31st. Brother Shawn Osbourne received his Fellow Craft Degree on September 30th. Congratulations to all these Brethren for the steps they have taken!

Pizza Inn Plaque Presentation

Brother Rusty Aker being presented a plaque from Inman Masonic Lodge by Brother Stephen Parris.

Before the November regular communication, Brother Stephen Parris presented Brother Steven Lane "Rusty" Aker with a plaque as a small token of appreciation for the support that Pizza Inn has shown Inman Masonic Lodge. Brother Aker, a member of Gaffney Masonic Lodge #186 AFM, along with his brother Daven, are owners several Pizza Inn locations in the area, most notably on Asheville Highway in Spartanburg, SC. These two men have made Pizza Inn the biggest contributor of Inman Masonic Lodge's annual golf tournament for two years in a row. Thanks to the Aker brothers and Pizza Inn for their support!

Welcome, Brother John Hansborough!

Brother John Hansborough is the newest affiliate of Inman Masonic Lodge. He was raised in Harry S. Truman Lodge #649 F&AM, in Naples, Italy in 1970. We at Inman Masonic Lodge are excited to give Brother John a warm welcome to his new home!

RWB Paul McWilliams's KCCH Investiture

RWB Paul McWilliams with MW and Illustrious Brother Michael D. Smith, Sovereign Grand Inspector General and Grand Master of Ancient Free Masons of South Carolina.

RWB Paul McWilliams, Past Master and current Secretary of Inman Masonic Lodge, as well as current District Deputy Grand Master of the 20th District, was invested with the Knight Commander of the Court of Honor of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction, on Friday, October 6th. This honor, informally referred to as receiving the "red hat", is conferred to a limited number of 32° Masons by the Supreme Council for their commendable service to the Rite, to Masonry, and the world at large. Congratulations to RWB Paul for receiving this distinct honor!

Inman Christmas Parade

This year, Inman Masonic Lodge participated in the Inman Christmas Parade, an effort spearheaded by Worshipful Master-Elect Bro. Ken Kuszmaul. The banner for the float was provided by RWB James E. Hayes, III, DDGM of the 21st Masonic District. Members of the Lodge boarded a float and toured the parade route, waving to the crowd, while RWB Hayes, RWB Paul McWilliams, DDGM of the 20th District, and WB Stephen Pinker, Master of the Lodge for 2017, walked the route and handed out candy. Kuszmaul's hope is that the Lodge, through its continued participation, can increase its visibility within the community.
